

Adrian Boyd

Co-opted governor

Adrian is an Old Olavian (1983-90) and during his time at the school was 1st XV rugby captain and deputy head boy (it was before the school became co-ed!). Following St Olave's he went up to Cambridge University and graduated in chemical engineering, as well as earning a Blue for rugby.

Starting work Adrian qualified as a chartered accountant and now works as a managing director at UBS, a large financial services firm.

He is also a co-opted governor of a primary school federation in Hackney, in the process of becoming the responsible officer for the Bridge Academy (also in Hackney, a secondary school sponsored by UBS) and a volunteer youth rugby coach.

Adrian & his wife Lisa live locally in Chelsfield and have 3 children. The eldest, Billy, is at St Olave's, Abby is at Tonbridge Girls GS and the youngest Emily is at The Highway Primary School. All the family love travelling and taking part in an assortment of sports and fitness activities.
