

Charlotte Benham

Charlotte read Geography at London School of Economics and then completed her PGCE at the Institute of Education. She has been teaching for 6 years and is currently an Assistant Head of Year in the Sixth Form.

She is the staff lead for the Amnesty International group, Geography Society and the Environmental Society, which has recently achieved Saint Olave's the Silver Award and is working towards our first Green Flag award. Charlotte is also the School Co-Coordinator for World Challenge expeditions, and has enjoyed a trip to Ecuador in 2018 Croatia in 2019.

She enjoys travelling, walking and trying her hand at crafts, and is presently revelling in a pottery for beginners course.
