

Ref: JG/AB

02 July 2020

Dear Parents/Carers and Students

The Economics Department is pleased to announce the publication of the fifth edition of The Olavian Economist.

This is a publication that has been written by a combination of Year 12 and Year 13 students with the Economics Department: as well as some Year 11s and Old Olavians.

The Journal may be of interest to anyone who has an interest in Economics, Politics and Current Affairs. It may be of interest to current students within the department as well as students that are considering studying the subject at A Level.

This fifth edition features articles on a range of topics including:

- Covid-19: A threat to women's economic security, by Bhavana Harish
- EU: Solidarity on the road to recovery from Covid-19, by Sanah Suresh
- How to pay for the pandemic – a monetary take, by Ishan Kalia
- Covid-19 & the stock market, by Devaj Keerthi
- Interview of Professor Ricardo Reis – London School of Economics

Copies are available at £5 per copy and can be purchased from Amazon via this link. Whilst we sell this through Amazon who charge us to do so, any profits that are made will be donated to NHS related charities. We will keep you updated in relation to how much money has been donated early in the new academic year.

We hope you enjoy reading your copy.

Yours faithfully

John Greenwood
Head of Economics