

Alexandra Fabian

Alex joined the governing body of St Olave's in April 2018 and is the Dulwich Estate appointed governor. She is the Chair of the Curriculum and HR committee. Alex lives in Dulwich and has four sons, now in their twenties. She read Classics at Wadham College, Oxford and her background is as a merchant banker for N M Rothschild & Sons Limited, where she worked in their corporate finance division. She moved to Ottawa, Canada in 1990 and worked at The Conference Board of Canada, a business think tank, until her eldest son was born, moving back to the UK in 1992.

She has been involved in education for many years, as a governor, PTA committee member, a parent, and, for the last ten years, as an employee of Dulwich College. She is a former Chair of Governors and Parent Governor at Dulwich College Infants' School, a Church of England school.

Alex is married to Andy, who is the finance director of an IT company. She runs two reading groups, a netball team, loves playing tennis and spends lots of time in the Isle of Wight.

✉ GOVafabian@saintolaves.net