

Dr D Ryall

David has been a Foundation Governor of St Olave's since September 2017. He sits on the HR/Admissions and Curriculum committees and is also the Link Governor for PE.

David is currently the Director of the Santa Marta Group, which is an international NGO that works to combat modern slavery and human trafficking. An experienced trustee, he is a board member of a charity working in the Middle East, a trustee of the St Olave's and St Saviour's Schools Foundation, where he sits on the Funds Committee, as well as a member of the Expert Advisory Council of the Global Fund to End Modern Slavery, which is based in Washington D.C.

✉ dryall2@saintolaves.net