

Mr A. Adeloye

Jisola is a seasoned Real Estate professional with unique depth in integrated property solution services, including property/facilities management, building HSE, building contract services provider supervision, residential property sales and lettings, client/customer relations, and renovations/constructions services. He is a certified ARLA and NAEA member with a degree in Estate Management. Having over 20 years' experience within the industry, he is currently a Director at a property management company in London Bridge.

Jisola is passionate about the expansion of God's kingdom on earth and actively seeks to contribute his quota wherever he finds himself. He is a member of the leadership team in his current church, a member of the Orpington Branch of GoodNews UK, (formerly known as The Gideons UK) and the UCB prayer line Orpington team. He is also a member of the board of trustees on OAO Foundation an organization committed to helping motherless and less privileged children in West Africa.

Jisola is married to the love of his life, Olufunke and they are blessed with 3 wonderful daughters. His youngest daughter is a child with complex medical needs and disability, and this has exposed him to a totally different path he has been dedicated to for over a decade.

Jisola loves singing hymns, gospel music and is a lover of nature.
