

Mrs Sarika Chaudhary

Sarika has a background in education and school leadership. She has a diverse experience of teaching & learning and pastoral care in different schools, ranging from state schools to inner city academies and international private schools.

Sarika is currently an Assistant Headteacher in a large secondary school in London where she leads the English and Learning Support Faculties, Post 16 careers and digital learning programmes. Sarika became a Co-opted Governor and Vice Chair of St Olave's in September 2018, after serving as a Parent Governor in the school for five years.

Sarika grew up in New Delhi, India, where she pursued her education, including a Bachelor's and Master's degree in English Literature at Lady Shri Ram College, University of Delhi.

Sarika has loved the experience of fusion of cultures and ideologies, in her journey of travelling around different countries. She lives in Orpington with her husband, Ajay. Her only son is currently at University after having a fantastic experience as a student in St Olave's Grammar School.
