

The Ven Dr Paul Wright
Chairman of Governors

Paul read Theology at King's College London in preparation for ordination. Since then he has undertaken a research degree at the University of Wales, Lampeter. He is at present the Archdeacon of Bromley & Bexley in the Diocese of Rochester.

Paul is a Member of three Multi-Academy Trusts and has extensive experience of school governorship, both at primary and secondary level. He became Chairman of Governors at St Olave's in September 2017. He is also a Member of the St Olave's & St Saviour's School Foundation.

He has been trained in Workplace Mediation through ACAS and takes a serious interest in the workplace environment, both in a religious and secular context.

Paul is married to Jill. They have three adult children and two young grandchildren. When the weather is warm and dry you will see him riding his Harley Davidson motorcycle!

✉ GOVpwright@saintolaves.net